3. The Agency's Annual Occupational Safety and Health Report, prepared for the Secretary of Labor in compliance with provisions of the Occupational Safety and Health Act, has been completed and forwarded for the DCI's signature. The comprehensive report was prepared in accordance with guidelines provided by the Secretary of Labor. It covers all elements of the Agency's Safety and Health Program, the activities during Calendar Year 1979, and plans for Calendar Year 1980. The report reflects some shortfalls in inspections and training but overall indicates a very healthy program.

4. In support of the Safety Educational and Promotional Program overseas, 320 copies of the National Safety Council's magazine Family Safety were provided to safety
